

More Denials From Ex-OSS Operative In Red Spy Case

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Duncan C. Lee, 33-year-old former OSS operative, denied in the face of new accusations today that he ever gave secret information to Elizabeth T. Bentley, confessed former Russian agent.

In one-two order, the House un-American Activities committee put Lee on its stand and then recalled Miss Bentley to repeat accusations she has made.

Lee, during the war, was with the Office of Strategic Services, a counter espionage agency. He is now practicing law here.

Miss Bentley Recalled
Lee swore he was not a Communist and said he had never disclosed secret information to any unauthorized person. He said it was hard to believe Miss Bentley's charges came from a "rational person."

Miss Bentley then took the stand and testified that Lee told her about "something super secret" going on at Oak Ridge, Tenn., where the atom bomb was developed, about OSS operations in China and in the Balkans.

Lee didn't know exactly what was going on at Oak Ridge, Miss Bentley said, but told her it must be "something super secret" because it was so highly guarded. She said he gave her the information during a conversation outside his home in Washington.

"Somebody Lied"

Lee, who was shot down while on an OSS mission to China, had flatly testified under oath that "I have never divulged classified information to any unauthorized person."

Rep. Hebert (D-La.) told Lee and Miss Bentley their testimony was so contradictory that it was obvious "somebody lied." Both witnesses agreed with that statement.

Hebert said: "I don't know who is a liar, but I am going to find out." And, he declared, he will insist that the justice department bring perjury charges against any witness who has lied.

Rep. Mundt (R-SD) said he associates himself with Hebert's remarks.

"In the interests of justice and security, and primarily in the interests of justice," Mundt said, "some innocent sounding people are guilty of infamous crimes, or innocent people have been injured by infamous testimony."

Lee was the day's first witness.

URGES ENTRIES FOR HORSE SHOW

Those planning to place entries in the horse show at the South Mountain Fair next month were asked today by LeRoy H. Winebrenner, superintendent of the department, to notify him as soon as possible of their plans.

If entries cooperate by notifying in advance of their plans to have horses there, a program cataloging the entries can be made up in time for the affair, Winebrenner pointed out.

This is the first year such a show has been held at the fair and there are five classes which will permit anyone to enter, he pointed out. Eventually it is hoped that the show will prove so successful that more specific classifications can be used, as in larger horse shows, but at present the show is open to all comers and all those who might have riding or driving horses are urged to enter them. There are classes for riding and driving horses, similar classes for ponies driven by children and classifications for brood mares.

Winebrenner said that his committee hopes that at least 50 horses and ponies will be entered and he urged not only all Adams countians who may have horses to enter them in the show, but also urged residents of Maryland and throughout Pennsylvania to join in the show.

Other members of the committee include Richard Bircher, Dr. Bruce Wolff and L. D. Shealer.

PLANE SPRAYS TOWN WITH DDT THIS MORNING

The approximately 400 acres comprising the borough of Gettysburg got a thorough "dousing" with DDT this morning in the borough council's second attempt this year to eliminate the mosquito and fly nuisance.

A plane operated by Eastern Air Activities, arrived here at 9 o'clock, four hours later than the time originally announced, and immediately loaded up and went into action.

A member of the council's special mosquito committee explained that the plane, due here Monday night, was held up in Carlisle by engine trouble, and was unable to take off for Gettysburg early this morning because of a heavy fog. The spraying had been scheduled to start at 5 a. m.

Second Spraying This Year

The first "pass" was made about 9:15 o'clock, the plane, its several jets shooting out the spray solution of DDT and oil, passing first over Center square.

Although it had been announced in The Gettysburg Times, and motorists had been warned to leave their automobiles under cover if they wished to avoid "spotting," the square was full of cars on this first sweep of the plane, and on subsequent flights. The plane crossed and criss-crossed the borough many times, sometimes appearing to barely clear the tops of buildings and trees.

It was the second time this year that the town has been sprayed. The first was on June 25 and 26, when the spraying was done from the ground, by means of a high pressure apparatus mounted on a truck.

Judging and demonstration contests opened there today.

More than 400 boys and girls in agricultural clubs engaged in poultry, dairy and livestock judging contests, while girls in homemakers clubs competed in home economics contests.

Meanwhile, J. M. Fry, state director of the agricultural and home economics extension service, announced that more state farm youths are enrolled in 4-H club work than ever before.

Membership for all counties, he said, may reach or exceed 22,000 as compared to 20,603 for 1947. This is the second year in a row to show a big gain for 4-H. Fry added. Club members now have 24,941 projects, 12 per cent more than in 1947, he disclosed.

COUNCIL TO GET "COMPLAINTS" AT BIGLERVILLE

Biglerville's borough council is expecting a "hot" session when it meets at the fire engine house this evening at 8 o'clock.

A number of residents of the town are expected to appear before council to make complaints concerning the new street being laid through the borough.

O. C. Rice, a resident of the borough for the past 38 years, in a paid advertisement appearing on another page of The Gettysburg Times today, urges the residents to turn out to join him in appearing before council.

In his advertisement, Rice lists a number of complaints of his own concerning the action of the state in preventing his tile drains from entering pipes being laid under the street, and adds that a state inspector told him he was "closing every tile that comes out on the main streets of Biglerville."

John W. Deardorff, Sr., president of the borough council, said today that state highway department officials would be present at this evening's meeting to give their side of the story and to explain the actions taken by the Highway department in the matter.

WILL EXHIBIT PAINTINGS OF LOCAL SCENES

A series of more than 50 paintings, of the Gettysburg battlefield and of farms, barns and the countryside in Adams county will be exhibited this fall and winter in Portland, Me., Boston, Mass. and New York city.

The paintings are the work of William Dow, director of art in the schools of Portland, Me., who, with his wife, Sylvia, head of the adult education program in the Portland schools, and Mrs. Julia Hurlburt, Mrs. Dow's mother, has been spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Milo Gallinger, Creative Crafts, Guernsey.

Mr. Dow is a recognized artist. He studied with Eric Pape, graduated from the Pennsylvania academy, Philadelphia, and won the annual scholarship for study abroad in France, Italy and England.

At a gathering at which Mr. and Mrs. Gallinger entertained friends for the Dows, Mr. Dow's paintings were named by the native Pennsylvania guests.

"Pleasantly Surprised"
Mr. Dow told Mr. and Mrs. Gallinger and others that he was pleasantly surprised by the beauty of the region, calling it "one of the loveliest I have ever seen," and said he hopes at some later time to be able to return. They returned recently to their home.

Each year Mr. Dow chooses a different spot in which to paint and later gives showing of his work in New England, while Mrs. Dow lectures on the region painted.

This year the Dows plan to feature seven-inning tilt. Fairfield took an Adams county countryside, scenes from the battlefield and the hand-woven fabrics of Creative Crafts, which they photographed in color. Mrs. Dow spent the summer studying hand weaving, while her husband toured the county with his brushes and palette.

Other guests of Creative Crafts were Ellen Raiguel, a delegate from Florida to the Republican national convention in Philadelphia, and students from Ohio, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware, New York, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C.

The letter was read by Vice President Donald M. Swope, who presided at the weekly dinner session of the club at Sheffer's park. CLERK HICCUPS FOR 170 DAYS

Waynesburg, Pa., Aug. 10 (AP)—Physicians at Greene County hospital continued their efforts today to find a cure for the hiccups that have worn Pauline Lucas down from 120 pounds to 78 in the last 170 days.

Miss Lucas, 31-year-old clerk, started hiccuping February 23. Part of the time she hiccups 75 times a minute with the rate slowing down occasionally to 10 or 15.

Doctors have tried medicinals and anesthesia while the dark-haired victim has herself attempted most of the old home cures—holding her breath, a knife placed under a glass, a sudden fright, but the hiccuping continued.

Her physician, Dr. A. J. Blair, said Miss Lucas' greatest relief came through the use of anesthesia.

"We don't know what's causing the hiccups," Dr. Blair said yesterday. "She has been examined by a neurologist. That didn't help either. The only possibilities we know of are hypnosis, which helps in some cases, and surgery."

Miss Lucas worked as a clerk in her father's paint store before she was stricken.

PLAN BUILDING FOR 'TRIANGLE'

Pittsburgh, Aug. 10 (AP)—Plans to erect a jointly-owned building to cover a block of the Golden Triangle were announced yesterday by the Mellon National Bank & Trust company and the U. S. Steel Corporation of Delaware.

A semi-official source said the building would be about 40 stories. No cost figure was mentioned.

The firms said execution of the plan would hang on "development of adequate traffic and parking facilities" and that the erection date will depend on "the future trend of construction costs."

Mayor David L. Lawrence said the city and its parking authority will aid in every way to facilitate the venture.

The block, bounded by Fifth avenue, Smithfield street, Oliver avenue and Will Penn place, includes the present Mellon bank and several other buildings. The bank would be left standing and the new structure built around it. All other buildings would be razed, including the nine-story Hotel Henry.

Lower floors of the skyscraper would be used for banking offices, upper floors as headquarters for U. S. Steel and its subsidiaries, most of which are scattered in various buildings about the city.

Spectacular Shot By AP Photographer

Levitz kept an eleven hour vigil in rocky Sabino canyon, 14 miles northeast of here, while rescue workers awaited daylight to reach Guy Rockefeller, Jr., who was stranded on an outcropping of rock 450 feet above the canyon floor.

Taking a position across the canyon, just after daylight, Levitz was recording the rescue step-by-step when Anderson who had reached the youth and was proceeding to the canyon rim with Rockefeller, lost his hand hold on a rope and plunged approximately 1,000 feet to his death.

Driver Anthony Devino, 35, of Newark, escaped injury.

Hagerstown Police Solve 'Hole' Mystery

Hagerstown, Md., Aug. 10 (AP)—An excited woman called the police station yesterday and said she had seen a man stop his car near the city limits, dig a hole beside the road, bury a package, and drive off.

They dug and found the package. Garbage.

RUMORS VAGUE ABOUT BERLIN

Berlin, Aug. 10 (AP)—Vague rumors that the Russians were about to lift the Berlin blockade by opening the railroad to the west were discounted today.

While Berliners awaited results of meetings of the three western envoys with Foreign Minister Molotov in the Kremlin, responsible British government sources said the talks still are bogged down over what should be done to achieve an immediate settlement in Berlin.

W. T. Babcock, U. S. deputy commander in Berlin, said he had heard from a usually "fairly accurate" German source that the Russians have ordered German rail officials to stand by for possible reopening of the railway.

The Russians closed the railway in June for what they said were technical difficulties. The western powers called this a fraud.

Informed British government sources in London said Russian Foreign Minister Molotov gave the western diplomats a plan for solving the currency dispute in Berlin and indicated its acceptance would bring about a lifting of the blockade. It was Molotov's third session in a week with the diplomats. He raised objections last Friday to a Berlin settlement plan advanced by the west, the British informants said.

U.S. Readies Crop Report For Today

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—The government readied a progress report today on a crop season that looks as though it will put more foodstuffs into harvest bins than ever before in history.

Major interest in the report due at 2 p. m. EST, centered on corn—the major raw material for meats, dairy products and poultry. A month ago, the Agriculture department predicted this crop would be the largest of record. Today's crop estimate seemed likely to be higher than previously forecast.

A record corn crop is expected to help bring lower retail meat, milk, butter, egg and poultry prices next year. Prices of these food items are at or close to record levels now because last year's corn crop was a near failure. As a result farmers were forced to curtail production.

A big corn crop—with accompanying lower grain prices—would encourage farmers to expand livestock output again. Under normal conditions, this increased production should begin to show up in lower retail prices next spring.

To Wait For Legislation

The board and transportation committee agreed that every effort will be made to provide the best transportation possible for all, and that every effort will be made to have the buses come as close to all of the students' homes as possible.

The various school boards were given the job of assigning their own pupils to the different schools with the joint board holding that each local district would know how better to make the assignments for the coming year.

There was some hope expressed by the joint boards that possibly within another year or two some new structures could be built to house the students, but the group decided to await the action of the coming session of legislature concerning possible state aid for such construction before going into a formal discussion of new school building.

CLERK HICCUPS FOR 170 DAYS

Waynesburg, Pa., Aug. 10 (AP)—Physicians at Greene County hospital continued their efforts today to find a cure for the hiccups that have worn Pauline Lucas down from 129 pounds to 78 in the last 170 days.

Miss Lucas, 31-year-old clerk, started hiccuping February 23. Part of the time she hiccups 75 times a minute with the rate slowing down occasionally to 10 or 15.

Doctors have tried medicinals and anaesthesia while the dark-haired victim has herself attempted most of the old home cures—holding her breath, a knife placed under a glass, a sudden fright, but the hiccuping continued.

Her physician, Dr. A. J. Blair, said Miss Lucas' greatest relief came through the use of anaesthesia.

"We don't know what's causing the hiccups," Dr. Blair said yesterday. "She has been examined by a neurologist. That didn't help either. The only possibilities we know of are hypnosis, which helps in some cases, and surgery."

Miss Lucas worked as a clerk in her father's paint store before she was stricken.

PLAN BUILDING FOR 'TRIANGLE'

Pittsburgh, Aug. 10 (AP)—Plans to erect a jointly-owned building to cover a block of the Golden Triangle were announced yesterday by the Mellon National Bank & Trust company and the U. S. Steel Corporation of Delaware.

A semi-official source said the building would be about 40 stories. No cost figure was mentioned.

The firms said execution of the plan would hang on "development of adequate traffic and parking facilities" and that the erection date will depend on "the future trend of construction costs."

Mayor David L. Lawrence said the city and its parking authority will aid in every way to facilitate the venture.

The block, bounded by Fifth avenue, Smithfield street, Oliver avenue and Will Penn place, includes the present Mellon bank and several other buildings. The bank would be left standing and the new structure built around it. All other buildings would be razed, including the nine-story Hotel Henry.

Lower floors of the skyscraper would be used for banking offices, upper floors as headquarters for U. S. Steel and its subsidiaries, most of which are scattered in various buildings about the city.

Spectacular Shot By AP Photographer

Levitz kept an eleven hour vigil in rocky Sabino canyon, 14 miles northeast of here, while rescue workers awaited daylight to reach Guy Rockefeller, Jr., who was stranded on an outcropping of rock 450 feet above the canyon floor.

Taking a position across the canyon, just after daylight, Levitz was recording the rescue step-by-step when Anderson who had reached the youth and was proceeding to the canyon rim with Rockefeller, lost his hand hold on a rope and plunged approximately 1,000 feet to his death.

RUMORS VAGUE ABOUT BERLIN

Berlin, Aug. 10 (AP)—Vague rumors that the Russians were about to lift the Berlin blockade by opening the railroad to the west were discounted today.

While Berliners awaited results of meetings of the three western envoys with Foreign Minister Molotov in the Kremlin, responsible British government sources said the talks still are bogged down over what should be done to achieve an immediate settlement in Berlin.

W. T. Babcock, U. S. deputy commander in Berlin, said he had heard from a usually "fairly accurate" German source that the Russians have ordered German rail officials to stand by for possible reopening of the railway.

The Russians closed the railway in June for what they said were technical difficulties. The western powers called this a fraud.

Informed British government sources in London said Russian Foreign Minister Molotov gave the western diplomats a plan for solving the currency dispute in Berlin and indicated its acceptance would bring about a lifting of the blockade. It was Molotov's third session in a week with the diplomats. He raised objections last Friday to a Berlin settlement plan advanced by the west, the British informants said.

U.S. Readies Crop Report For Today

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—The government readied a progress report today on a crop season that looks as though it will put more foodstuff into harvest bins than ever before in history.

Major interest in the report due at 2 p. m. EST, centered on corn—the major raw material for meats, dairy products and poultry. A month ago, the Agriculture department predicted this crop would be the largest of record. Today's crop estimate seemed likely to be higher than previously forecast.

A record corn crop is expected to help bring lower retail meat, milk, butter, egg and poultry prices next year. Prices of these food items are at or close to record levels now because last year's corn crop was a near failure. As a result farmers were forced to curtail production.

A big corn crop—with accompanying lower grain prices—would encourage farmers to expand livestock output again. Under normal conditions, this increased production should begin to show up in lower retail prices next spring.

To Wait For Legislature

The board and transportation committee agreed that every effort will be made to provide the best transportation possible for all, and that every effort will be made to have the buses come as close to all of the students' homes as possible.

The various school boards were given the job of assigning their own pupils to the different schools with the joint board holding that each local district would know how better to make the assignments for the coming year.

There was some hope expressed by the joint boards that possibly within another year or two some new structures could be built to house the students, but the group decided to await the action of the coming session of legislature concerning possible state aid for such construction before going into a formal discussion of new school building.

School Damage Reported

HIGHWAY WINS FIRST GAME OF PLAYOFFS

Highway disposed of Legion 8 to 3 Monday evening in the first game of their semi-final series in the playoffs to determine the championship of the Community Soft-ball league.

The first and third place squads will meet again Wednesday evening in the second game of the series. The third tilt, if one is necessary, will be held Friday.

In the meantime the second and fourth place teams, Texas Lunch and Elks, will meet this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the high school grounds to begin their three-game series in the semi-finals. The winners of the two series will meet the week of August 16 to determine the championship of the loop.

The Highway players, who ended first in the final loop standing had little trouble hitting the offerings of the Legion's Tawney, pounding out 13 safeties during the game, including home runs by G. Fair and Frazer.

Heavy Hitters
As a matter of fact G. Fair, the Highway pitcher, had himself quite a night, holding the Legion to three hits, and getting as many for himself during his four turns at bat. The Highway pitcher, besides the homer, had two doubles. The Legionnaires were able to secure only singles off Fair's twirling for their three hits.

Frazer, Highway catcher, had an excellent evening at bat, getting three singles as well as the homer, for four hits out of four times at bat.

Paul Anzengruber, batting for Claybaugh, and Tawney were the only Legionnaires able to touch Fair's twirling.

SAYS CHANCES OF A'S 'GOOD'

Philadelphia, Aug. 10 (AP)—Connie Mack led his bargain basement pennant contenders into Shibe Park today convinced the Philadelphia Athletics have "better than a good chance" to finish atop the American league.

Grinning broadly as he returned to Philadelphia after a successful swing through the west, the 85-year-old pilot announced firmly that "we're in there to stay."

A sellout crowd was assured for today's two-night doubleheader with the Washington Senators and Mack was ready to use Joe Coleman and Bill McCahan in quest of a double win that could elevate the Athletics to the league leadership. The A's now trail Cleveland by a half game. "The club is in good shape," Mack said. "All our injuries are healed and the pitchers are in better condition than they have been all season."

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
The Albany Senators have been getting the best mileage from their pitchers of any team in the Eastern league in the last two days.

In four games the Scranton Miners have scored three runs in 38 innings against Albany hurling. The Senators chalked up a double win, 1-1 and 1-0, last night after a 4-2 win and a 13-inning scoreless dead-end Sunday.

Meanwhile, seven runs in the fifth gave the Elmira Pioneers a 7-1 victory over the Binghamton Triplets. Hartford's Chiefs split a double header at Wilkes-Barre, winning the nightcap 11-6 after losing the opener 4-3. The Utica Blue Sox increased their league lead to five games by taking a 6-5 decision from the Tigers at Williamsport.

MANGRUM SETS MONEY RECORD

Chicago, Aug. 10 (AP)—Little Lloyd Mangrum, pro golfer's leading money winner, today headed for this week-end's St. Paul open, after leaving nothing at his home Tam O' Shanter club house but the door-knobs.

Mangrum won an unprecedented $23,500 in a week's golf work at Tam by sweeping the All-American professional meet and George S. May's accompanying "world championship of golf."

You'll find Mangrum listed as the Professional Golfers' Association's official pace-setter with $25,944, some $647 ahead of Ben Hogan, who turned up his nose at Promoter May's lengthy carnival. The PGA counts only the All-American phase of May's shindig in the book.

But actually, little war veteran Mangrum, who hasn't missed a major pro start this year, boosted his year's take to nearly $45,000 by his amazing hot streak at Tam.

Mangrum's clubs were a sharp set of pick-axes which struck a gold lode at Tam, biting off these glittering nuggets: $10,000 for winning the "World" playoff yesterday with a two-under-par 70, one stroke ahead of Sam Snead and three in front of Dutch Harrison; $5,000 for copping the 72-hole All-American Professional which ended Friday; $5,000 bonus from Boss May for topping all pro money-winners after the All-American, and $2,500 for setting a course record with a 63 round Sunday which tied him with Snead and Harrison in the "World" meet.

FAVOR HANOVER PAIR AT GOSHEN

Goshen, N. Y., Aug. 10—Cagey old Tom Berry, whom many think will drive Rollo to victory tomorrow in the 23rd Hambletonian stake, squinted out over historic Good Time track and said: "I think it'll be between Demon Hanover and Madison Hanover."

It was something like a football coach bemoaning the opposition's "powerful line and three-deep backfield." Berry didn't seem too convincing for the veteran 66-year-old trainer and driver of the Coldstream stud farm from Lexington, Ky., then conceded: "Oh, I think we've got a good chance. Rollo's a good tough, game horse, but the way Demon Hanover has been racing, it looks like he'll be the best. I think it'll be between Demon Hanover and Madison Hanover."

Ten, and possibly 12, starters loomed as certain for the $60,000 classic, third richest of the long series. Besides Rollo, there is the favored Demon Hanover, owned by Harrison Hoyt, Bethel, Conn.; Madison Hanover, owned by William H. Strang, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mighty Sister, E. C. Moriarity, Wichita, Kans.; Mercy Abbey, Herman Landis, Snellville, Ind.; Judge Moore, W. N. Reynolds, Winston-Salem, N. C.; Jeff Hanover, Marylou O'Connor, Warwick Downs, R. I.; Egan Hanover, C. M. Saunders, Toledo, Ohio; Cynical Way, W. H. Hight, Skowhegan, Me.; and Adeline Hanover, T. J. Zornow, Pittsford, N. Y.

SLAUGHTER IS RINGLEADER OF CARDS' DRIVE

(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Who do you think has been the ringleader in the St. Louis Cardinals' current drive to overtake the Boston Braves in the red hot National league pennant race?

Stan Musial? No, sir. It's been Enos (Country) Slaughter, Stan's running mate.

Partly obscured by the big shadow of Musial since Stan joined the Cardinals late in 1941, Slaughter, a great player in his own right, has outdone even the mighty Musial with the bat during the past three weeks.

Triple With Bases Loaded
Last night Slaughter collected four hits in four times at bat. He drove in five runs and almost single-handedly led the Cardinals to a 6-2 triumph over the Reds in Cincinnati.

Slaughter's hits included two singles, a double and a triple. His triple came with the bases loaded in the first inning. His double brought in two runners in the seventh.

The victory enabled the second place Cardinals to advance within three and a half games of the idle Braves. They lead the third place Brooklyn Dodgers by half a game.

Indians In Lead

The Dodgers kept pace with the Cardinals, edging out Philadelphia 2-1, in a tight pitching duel between Carl Erskine and Blix Donnelly. Erskine, a 21-year-old recruit recently brought up from Fort Worth, permitted the Phils only five hits in registering his fourth victory without a setback. One of the Phils' blows was Del Ennis' 17th home run.

The Cleveland Indians moved a half game out in front in the torrid American league pennant race as Gene Bearden pitched the Tribe to a 6-2 victory over the Tigers in a night game in Detroit.

A crowd of 56,586, largest of the year in Detroit, saw Bearden tame the Bengals with seven hits. Eddie Robinson's three-run homer in the fourth off Freddie Hutchinson gave the tall rookie lefthander enough runs to rack up his 10th victory.

Browns Win

The victory put the Tribe a half game in front of the runner-up Philadelphia Athletics, two and a half ahead of the third place New York Yankees and three in front of the fourth place Boston Red Sox.

Bob Dillinger banged a triple and two doubles to lead the Browns to an 8-6 triumph over the Chicago White Sox in a night game in St. Louis.

Other teams in both leagues were not scheduled.

Plan Match To Fix New "Heavy" Title

Camden, N. J., Aug. 10 (AP)—Reports that the National Boxing Association would tag the winner heavyweight champion today strengthened the likelihood of an October match between Jersey Joe Walcott and the victor of the Ezzard Charles-Jimmy Bivins bout.

The reports came from Gabe Mendez, Washington promoter seeking to present the fight in the nation's capital in October, and from Leon Rains, chairman of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission.

Said Mendez: "Although Joe Louis has announced his retirement to the public, he has not given official notice to the NBA, but the NBA will force his hand when it holds its annual convention in Philadelphia beginning September 12."

Mendez said that Harvey Miller, District of Columbia boxing commissioner and secretary of the NBA "will put it up to the convention and poll the delegates on the question of approving a match between the Bivins-Charles winner and Walcott for the title."

DEWEY PLANS 10 BIG TALKS

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey was described by friends today as so confident of election victory he may make fewer than 10 major campaign speeches.

The Republican campaign course will not be fixed finally until an Albany meeting next week with Gov. Earl Warren of California, Dewey's running mate.

But the signs now point to a sharp contrast between the GOP nominee's carefully-paced bid for November support and the sort of whistle stop speaking drive planned for President Truman by the Democratic national committee.

If early plans jell, friends said Dewey may make one long campaign tour by train. After that he may fly to fill individual speaking dates, returning to Albany after each.

Republicans have no financial troubles, but the Democrats are reported still to lack cash to put on as big a drive as they would like.

Since radio time costs so much and the President isn't regarded as a skilled performer, some party members say off-the-cuff speeches on the courthouse steps and at rail stations will be a lot cheaper and possibly more effective.

LIFE'S LITTLE EXTRAS

I went into a store recently to buy a small rug. A most courteous elderly man waited upon me. He wanted to know where I was to use the rug, and began telling me about the history of the sort of rug from which I had selected one. He was interested not only in the rugs that he sold but in me—the one buying.

The little extra of interest and understanding which that salesman showed was worth an extra that was not on the selling price. I made up my mind if ever again I should want a rug of this type I would surely go to him. His kindness has swept through my mind again and again since that event.

Every business has, or should have, in its employ, certain ones who are forever looking for the opportunity to render just a little extra service. Such people keep growing, keep climbing, keep rising in importance and keep getting happier. The little extras do the boosting for them.

A friend of mine was recently ill
in a hospital and one of her friends sent a single rose to her each day.
They understood and loved each other, but this act was one of those happy little extras that gave cheer and opened up a light to the heart
each day of convalescence.

Stevenson said: "Culture is not measured by the greatness of the field which is covered by our knowledge, but by the nicety with which we can perceive relations in that field, whether great or small."

The niceties are the little extras that we throw into our relation with others.

A mere smile is one of the little extras of life, yet we never know whose spirit has been uplifted by it, nor do we know the extent of its influence. The smile of my mother is still vivid before me, though it has been long years since I last saw it.
Memory carries such an easy load
of these little extras!

The little extra may be very in-significantly rendered, but who is to chart its end or extent? I carry in my memory the beautiful character of a woman who once lived next door to my family, when I was a boy in high school. A day to her seemed lost without some little extra kindness, or service, where it would bring the most happiness. Her personality is unforgettable.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Unnoticed."

THE CASE OF THE

MISSING CASES

A woman traveler reported the loss of two grips containing $150,000 worth of furs and gems—News Item.

Some losses to us all occur,
But when I read the morning
news,

Two cases of expensive fur
Are treasures I shall never lose.
Thieves: when I have to take a trip

There'll be no jewels in my grip.

A man of simple tastes am I,
My trinkets would not tempt to crime.

He who to steal my bag would try Would, if he got it, waste his time;

For all he'd find when opening it
Would be a shirt and shaving kit.

The cares of those who much possess
Will never spoil the day for me.
No thief can steal my happiness
For what within my case may be.

The porter carrying my grip
Gets all it's worth—a quarter tip.

Griefs there are that all must bear.

But when I travel, this I find:
Since I own little that is rare,
No thief can steal my peace of mind.

Whatever loss to me occurs,
'Twill never be of gems and furs.

UNITED STATES RULED WINNER IN RELAY APPEAL

London, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Olympic press office said today an Olympic jury of appeal has ruled the United States won the disputed 400 meter relay race.

The official announcement said:
"The jury of the International Amateur Athletic Federation, having seen the film and the photographs of the 400 meter relay of the Olympic games are satisfied that an error was made and the placing has been revised as follows: '1. U.
S. A.; '2. Great Britain, and '3.
Italy.'"

The jury thus reversed the judges' decision which disqualified the American team after it finished about ten yards ahead of the British.

British Have Medals

The judges had said the baton was passed illegally on the first exchange between Barney Ewell and Lorenzo Wright.

The British runners already had received Olympic medals. They took the victors' stand in the official ceremony in Wembley stadium show, brought the judges' ruling which brought about the first major dispute on the 1948 Olympic games.

What will happen now to the Olympic medals was not immediately known.

Mel Patton of Southern California was anchor man in the race and Harrison Dillard was the other member of the U. S. quartet.

11th Championship

The decision gives the United States its 11th championship in men's track and field. The Americans won unofficial team titles in track and field and in swimming by overwhelming margins.

Avery Brundage, president of the United States Olympic Committee
and member of the Jury of Appeal, said after the reversed announcement: "It was quite clear we exchanged the baton two or three yards inside the marker. The official had apparently judged by the middle line and not by the outside line just as the boys had told me last Saturday. It was quite plain although we had to run the film through several times in order to convince everyone."

There are three marks in the relay zone. One marks the exact middle and the others are ten meters in either direction. The rule requires the baton be exchanged within the two outside lines.

"It was a slow pass," said Wright.
"We wanted to make sure of it, but it was a legal pass."

In Court Semi-Finals

Yesterday's biggest show was America's victory in the eight-oared shell final. The University of California crew representing the United States beat Great Britain by three lengths. The four-oared shell with Coxswain from the University of Washington bested the Swiss for another Olympic rowing title.

In basketball the United States entered the semifinals by overwhelming Uruguay, one of the most feared foreign rivals, 63-28.

Four American boxers scored first round victories and three more make their first appearances today.
Only one Yank slugger has been beaten.

Set Weight Record

J. N. De Pietro of Paterson, N. J., the midge of the U. S. Olympic weight-lifting squad at 4 feet 8 inches set a world and Olympic record in the bantamweight division.
He had a winning total of 677½ pounds.

The four remaining championship flight basketball teams took a day off while 10 nations battled for consolation honors. The boxing tournament continued in the rings built over the swimming pool near the Olympic stadium. Yachting, soccer, weightlifting, equestrian and fencing competition also was on today's morning-till-midnight program.

A MAN IN THE HOUSE

By Florence Stuart

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 22

It was that night that Jane gave in to the singing music in her heart, the quickening of her pulse beat, when she sat close to Ted in the darkened movie theater and felt the pressure of his arm against her.
She thought wonderingly: "Is this the man I am destined to love?"

Ted's shoulder came closer and closer. His hands reached for hers, touched hers. "No, Ted," she whispered, quickly withdrawing her hand. But not before she had turned her eyes to his and let him see their wonderful brilliance for a quick, betraying second.

After they left the show that night, they drove out to a place about ten miles from town. It was the first time Jane had gone to a night spot with Ted. He begged:
"Just this once, Jane. Please." She had never known him so grave.

He said: "I must talk with you.
Away from the house, where there's no chance of interruption."

The place was called Aladdin's Lamp and it was a typical night spot. Dim lights, smoke-laden air, and interior floor show, curtained booths for those who wanted complete privacy.

Jane and Ted went into one of the booths. The table was scarcely the span of an arm between them.

The waitress brought their orders, an old-fashioned for Ted, lemonade for Jane. She asked him:
"Why did you bring me out here,
Ted? What did you want to talk about?"

"Us," Ted said. "Me, is what I suppose I mean. I can't go on like this, my girl. I can't go on living in your house. I wanted to tell you before I made other arrangements.
You've been pretty swell to me,
Jane. You and the professor, too. So I didn't want to put myself in the position of walking out on you without your understanding why."

"Well, why, Ted? Why must you go?"

"Because the set-up has become intolerable. You must know it, without my telling you." His hand came across the table, touching hers, holding it.

"What do you mean?"

Ted paused, sipped his drink, allowing his eyes to drink in the loveliness of her flushed face. "I've fallen in love with you, Jane. You know it, don't you? You must know it. I suppose it happened the first day I met you. I knew something was happening to me, but I didn't take it seriously. I always go for a pretty girl. This time I fooled myself. This time it is important. This time I find myself in deep, very deep."

He drew a long, sighing breath, let his fingers tighten over hers.
"Well, that's the way it is, beautiful. That's why it's time for me to be on my way."

Jane said, her voice low, scarcely articulate: "What makes you so sure the girl is in love with her husband?"

Ted smiled, not taking her too seriously. "She is," he said. "Aren't you?"

Jane said: "I don't know. Ted, I'm scared. I need to talk to someone. Can I talk to you?"

She told him then about her doubts, her fears, all her troubled uncertainty over her marriage. She said: "You've been living with us;
you must have noticed that things aren't right between Carl and me.
I've begun to wonder if he ever loved me, really, if I'm the right sort of wife for him."

Ted lit a cigarette: "You certainly aren't being smart when you talk like that, honey." He flipped the match onto a tray, laughed. Then suddenly he was dead serious.

"Whatever gave you the idea that your husband isn't in love with you?" he asked. "Why, the guy's nuts about you, A blind man could see that."

"No," Jane shook her head.
"How can you say that, Ted? You have seen how he leaves me alone
while he buries himself in his work."

"Well, Holy Moses, kid. He's a busy guy. You ought to drop over to the college some day and watch how everyone runs him ragged. I'd go stark raving insane if I had his job. Have a heart, baby. Try to see est back I ever coached." . . . Arnoldo will be playing his third season. . . . Coach Willeford almost had heart failure when Gonzalez rode a wild bronco in a rodeo the night before a big game. . . . But Arnoldo is the best bronc buster in all Mexico
so there was no need for worry.

MORE SCORING

Matty Bell, coach of Southern Methodist's undefeated Southwest conference champions, says spring practice and coaching all-star football players at the Texas coaching school have convinced him scoring is going to soar in this fall's gridiron campaign. . . . It's the use of the tee for field goals and points after touchdown, something being allowed this year. . . . "In practice fellows who never had kicked field goals could boot them between the bars without coming close to a miss," says Bell. "The tee prevents the kicker dragging the ground with his foot or topping the ball. There just won't be any teams getting one-point leads and falling back on defense. They'll all be trying for field goals every time they get within scoring distance and their offense is sloved down."

his angle."

"Maybe so," Jane said. She was thoughtful for a moment. "Still, allowing for all that—" She glanced up, gave Ted her eyes full and bright. "Look how he is about you."

"Me?"
"Yes. Wouldn't you think he'd exhibit a few signs of healthy jealousy? He might have the common politeness—" Jane's mouth quirked in an engaging grin—"to tell you, at least once, to lay off making a play for his wife. I mean, most any husband would do that, wouldn't he?
Seeing us together so much and—
and everything. But what does Carl do? Practically throws me at your head."

"Well, what?" Ted grinned at her quizzically.

"Do you call that love?" Ted said.
"Certainly I call it love," Ted said.
"His kind of love. And if it isn't a pretty swell brand, then I'm a rotten guesser. Look, honey." He leaned across the table and took both of her hands. Now, for the moment, it was merely a friendly gesture.

"Know what's wrong with you?
You're still so terribly young."

"Me? Young?" Jane smiled. "I'm twenty-three. And I've been married three years. That's hardly being—well, a baby."

"Yes," Ted said soberly. "You've been married three years but I'm not too sure you've quite grown up to marriage. Maybe it was too stiff a dose for you to digest all at once. Maybe you were due for—well, for just what's happening to you now."

OWEN J. ROBERTS NEW PENN LAW SCHOOL DEAN

Philadelphia, Aug. 10 (AP)—With the selection of Owen J. Roberts as dean of its law school, the University of Pennsylvania tapped a leading public figure for a high administrative post for the second time in less than two weeks.

Pennsylvania announced appointment of the 73-year-old former associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court yesterday. He will assume his new post September 1 when the resignation of Earl G. Harrison becomes effective.

On July 29 the university chose Harold E. Stassen, former Governor of Minnesota, as its new president. Stassen is expected to take up his duties here at the beginning of the fall term.

Both Liberal GOP

Both Stassen and Roberts say they belong to the liberal wing of the Republican party. Harrison was a Democrat who once served as commissioner of the U. S. Immigration and naturalization service.

Stassen said, upon announcement of his nomination as president of Penn., that he would continue to take an active interest in public affairs. Roberts has been plugging for civil rights since he retired from the nation's highest tribunal in 1945. He sat on the Supreme court bench for 15 years after his appointment in 1930 by former President Herbert Hoover.

For several years after Franklin D. Roosevelt became president, Roberts was the key member of the Supreme court. The court at that time was balanced 4-4 between conservatives and liberals and Roberts held the balance of power.

Changed Position

He voted against all but two of the 13 New Deal measures the court passed upon prior to October, 1936, but in FDR's second term, Roberts aligned himself with the liberal element and voted pro-administration 14 straight times.

A Philadelphia lawyer who was graduated from Penn and its law school, Roberts first came into national prominence in 1924 when he helped prosecute the Teapot Dome oil cases.

Over six feet tall and broad-shouldered, the 73-year-old Roberts has been living at his home in nearby Phoenixville since his retirement from the Supreme court.

TEN HOTELS TO HOUSE LEGION

Philadelphia, Aug. 10 (AP)—The 7,000 delegates attending the 30th annual state American Legion convention—opening in Philadelphia August 18—will be housed in 10 hotels, Convention Chairman Walter E. Alessandrini announced today.

Alessandrini also said housing has been obtained for the 1,200 members of the 65 bands expected to participate in the 10-hour parade Saturday, August 21.

A special squad of 120 policemen, all members of the American Legion, will patrol the hotels where Legion delegates are staying, according to Police Capt. Gustav Blind.

As another safety measure, 20 members of Philadelphia Firemen's Post No. 686, American Legion, will be assigned to all major hotels housing delegates.

The convention will close on August 21. The principal sessions will be held at Convention hall with special bus shuttle service available from hotels to the hall.

Pa. Guard To Have Largest '48 Camp

Indiantown Gap, Pa., Aug. 10 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, commander of the 28th Infantry division, will be camp commander for the two weeks' field training of the Pennsylvania National guard here Aug. 14 to 28.

Strickler's appointment was announced today by Brig. Gen. Frank A. Weber, state adjutant general.

The encampment will be the largest in the nation this year from the standpoint of strength in the field.

It will include some 10,000 troops of General Strickler's division command and about 2,500 from 10th corps artillery units commanded by Brig. Gen. William S. Bailey, of Harrisburg. Several non-divisional units attached to the 51st AAA brigade command of Maj. Gen. Charles C. Curtis, of Allentown, and the state under General Weber will complete the enrollment.

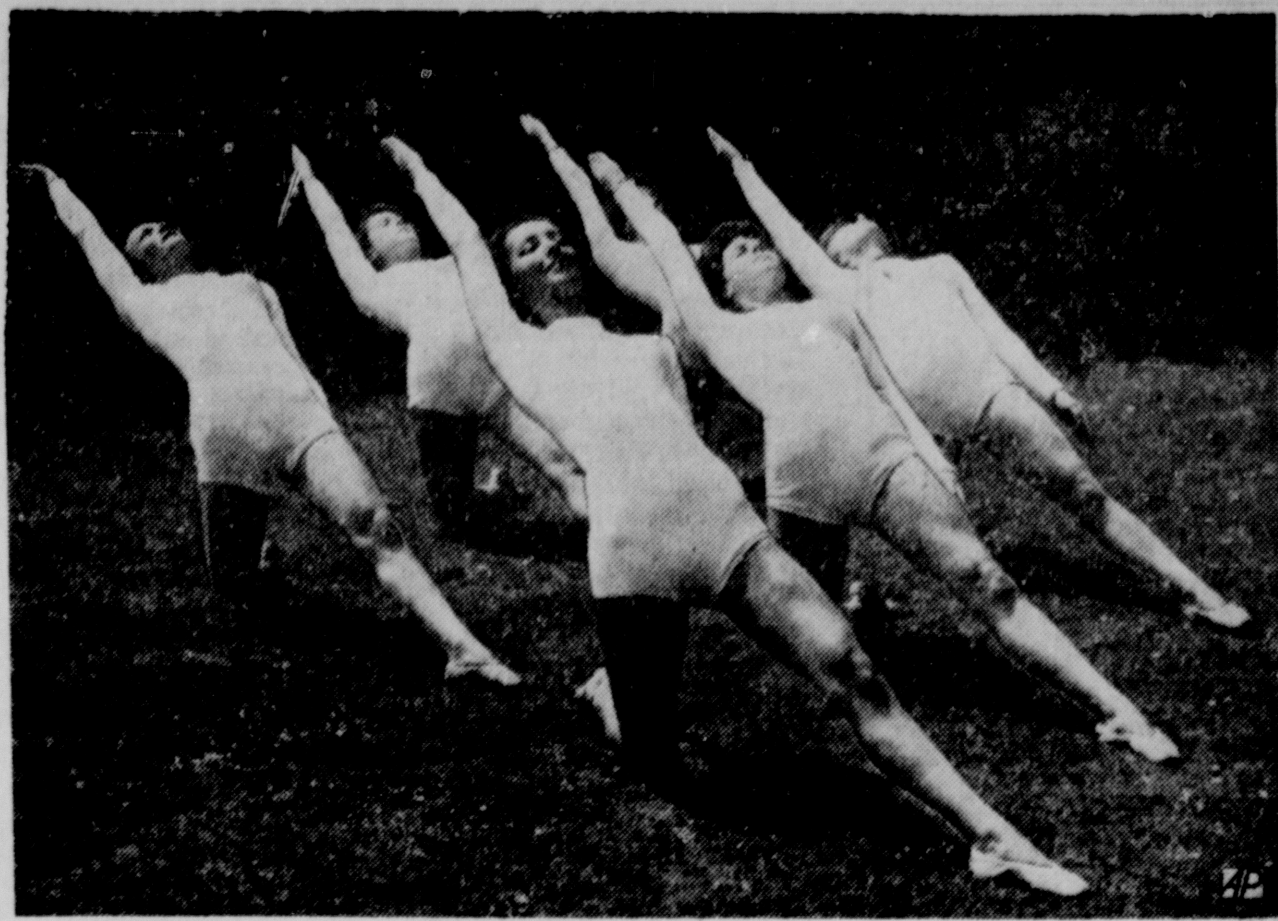

Bridegroom Free Of One Ball, Chain

Grand Rapids, Mich., Aug. 10 (AP) Freed of his ball and chain, Larry Plaugher was wed-locked today the way he planned it in the beginning.

The 23-year-old engineering college graduate and his bride, Lucille, 19, were on their honeymoon.

And the 24-pound ball and chain which student pranksters at Tulsa, Okla., had fastened to Larry's ankle was stowed away "for a souvenir."

As the prank-players had said, the key got to Lucille in the mails, late Saturday, and she unlocked the chain. Larry had been forced to wear it since Friday when he left for Tulsa.

EAST BLOC WINS DANUBE DISPUTE

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Aug. 10 (AP)—Eastern Europe's solid Communist bloc beat down today a western power effort to win freedom of navigation guarantees on the Danube.

By vote of 7 to 3, a conference called to write a new convention governing transport on central Europe's major waterway rejected a French attempt to substitute a preamble of their own for one prepared by Russia for the new pact.

The controversy centered chiefly around the French effort to omit from the preamble a Russian clause which would place the conference on record as recognizing the "sovereign rights" of the Danube states.

The United States delegation has proposed an amendment providing that the interests "of all nations" would be protected on the Danube. In rapid order, however, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, the Ukraine and Romania served notice that they will insist upon reserving the Russian preamble intact.

Finish Tennessee Count Peacefully

Benton, Tenn., Aug. 10 (AP)—A canvass of returns from last week's bloody Polk county general election was completed late last night under the protection of National Guard bayonets and machine guns—without untoward incident.

A picked squad of 65 state highway patrolmen aided National Guardsmen in patrolling this small community in the rugged east Tennessee mountain country as county election commissioners worked behind closed doors.

The canvass of returns gave the Good Government league majorities in all county posts, unseating the long established Democratic political organization headed by Burch E. Biggs.

The three-man election commission announced, however, that because of irregularities, any candidate was free to contest the election.

Felix Adams, They were accompanied to Emmitsburg by Louise Adams and nephew, William Adams, who spent the past week visiting in Philadelphia.

Dayton, Ohio, Aug. 10 (AP)—Status of striking Univis Lens company employees when they return to their jobs blocked efforts Monday to reach a peaceful solution of the three-month-old labor dispute.

Members of Local 768 United Electrical workers (CIO) voted on Sunday for a proposal to end the strike. Company officials, however, rejected the settlement plan.

ANNEXATION OF SATELLITES BY RUSSIA COMING

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Romanian refugees in Turkey report that a plebiscite is to be held in their country late this month to determine whether it shall become a member of the Soviet Union.

Should this prove to be true it will mean that Russia is starting the annexation—long expected by observers—of her eastern European satellites. Such an expansion of the Soviet empire would further consolidate her grip on that half of the continent and pave the way for fresh efforts at further moves towards the English Channel.

Troops Already In

Should Romania vote to "join" the Soviet Union, the refugees say, the Romanian Parliament will be dissolved and delegates to Moscow will be named instead. Then, of course, Moscow could send Russian troops into Romania without question either from her people or from foreign countries. As a matter of fact, it is said four Russian divisions already have surrounded Bucharest and have strengthened the garrisons in other cities. What price a free plebiscite?

This column previously has forecast that Moscow in due course would annex the satellite states, whose governments already have been ousted in favor of Communist regimes. There is no doubt that Russia would have done so already, as in the case of three little Baltic states, but for the fact that she now is dealing with larger and sturdier nations, and furthermore wishes to maintain a pose of legality so as not to create fear and hostility among prospective victims.

The indications are that Moscow is getting anxious because of the discontent and resistance which are running through the satellites. It behooves the Soviet to move fast if she is to maintain that Stettin-Adriatic line which she has forged through the heart of Europe by her conquest of the countries now behind the iron curtain.

If we are indeed about to see the

Hoover Talks About 'Meaning of America'

West Branch, Iowa, Aug. 10 (AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover said today there are "fuzzy-minded people" in this country who "never have understood and never will understand what the word America means," but added:

"This new land with all its high beginning of Russian annexation of the satellites, it will alter the military picture of Europe. Into every nation which "joins" the Soviet Union, Moscow will immediately fling her troops, so that in due course the Red armies will be up against that Stettin-Adriatic line, facing the countries of Western Europe.

There is no doubt that Russia figures on achieving all this as part of the "cold war," meantime pushing her world revolution for the spread of Communism.

promise cannot and will not be conquered except by men inspired from the concepts of free spirit.

"It is those moral and spiritual qualities in free men which fulfill the meaning of the word American. And with them will come centuries of further greatness to our country." Hoover's remarks were in an address prepared for a homecoming 74th birthday celebration and broadcast over the Mutual Broadcasting system. The speech was titled "The Meaning of America."

GO SAFER-GO FARTHER on B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns

Extra safety of the B. F. Goodrich Silvertown comes from a tire body that is made tougher, longer lasting with more—and stronger—cords. This stronger tire body also has a special double breaker strip for protection against road shocks.

B. F. Goodrich Silvertowns go farther because tread wear is more uniform. The tread is wider and more level. This means more tread-to-road contact, better weight distribution, more even wear, thousands of extra miles.

GOP CHIEFS MAP PLANS IN PENNA.

Hershey, Pa., Aug. 10 (AP)—Pennsylvania Republican chieftains held their first formal meeting here last night to shape GOP battle plans for the November election campaign.

"We discussed the over-all national campaign and went over the whole picture in Pennsylvania," Gov. James H. Duff disclosed after a dinner meeting at the Hotel Hershey. Duff refused, however, to comment on the topics under discussion, and added that the gathering was "just a preliminary talk to discuss the campaign."

The meeting was the first formal gathering of the state's leading Republicans since a split over the issue of the Republican Presidential nomination at the June convention in Philadelphia.

At that time, Duff and U. S. Sen. Edward Martin were at odds over the Presidential choice. Duff supported U. S. Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, while Martin was the first leading figure to join the bandwagon of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey at the convention.

Since that time, however, Duff has pledged full support of Dewey and has promised to take an active part in the drive to capture Pennsylvania's 35 electoral votes for Dewey.

Littlestown—Miss Ethel Kindig has returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kindig, East King street, after taking a summer course at Penn State college.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arbogast, Newport, were week-end guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Arbogast, and family, East Myrtle street. Their son, Kenneth, and Miss Betty Wilson, Newport, accompanied them here. On Sunday, their son, Robert, also of Newport, came to take his parents home.

Miss Rosalee Halter, Westminster, is spending a week with her friend, Mrs. Charles Hafe, East King street.

Miss Charlotte Hafe, student nurse at the Garfield Memorial hospital, Washington, returned to her duties Monday evening after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hafe, East King street.

The Rev. Grantas E. Hoopert has announced a meeting of the official board of the Centenary Methodist church on Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the church.

The weekly meeting of the Littlestown Men's chorus will be held Thursday at 8 p. m. in St. Paul's Lutheran church.

The stitching department of the Windsor Shoe Company, Inc., Littlestown, and a number of friends enjoyed a bus trip to Atlantic City, leaving Littlestown Saturday at 3 a. m. and returning Sunday at 5 a. m. While in Atlantic City, a number of the party enjoyed "The Ice Capades of 1949"; some saw a stage show on the Steel pier; others danced on the Steel pier and a number took an underwater trip.

Those who made the trip were: Miss Mary Louise Kress, Miss Lottie Kraft, Miss Leah Crebs, Miss Naomi Ecker, Miss Margaret Stonestier, Miss Patricia Lippy, Miss Elva Good, Miss Geneva Dugan, Miss Velma Flickinger, Miss Donna Shoemaker, Miss Naomi Plank, John Plank, Mr. and Mrs. Hurschel Shank, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Selby, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morelock, Jr., Mrs. Malcolm Heiser, Mrs. George Schaeffer, Miss Nancy Markle, Miss Evelyn Noble, Miss Nancy Myers, Miss Sue Ella Stair, Mrs. Raymond Clinean, Mrs. John Busbey, Mrs. Kenneth Stair, Mrs. Harry Long, and Mrs. Leroy Myers. Bloomersburg, Pa., Aug. 10 (AP)—Jack Young, 31, has been released in $2,000 bail supplied by his 62-year-old mother whose death he was accused of plotting to collect insurance money. Sheriff Ray Lehr said Young, who was arrested three weeks ago on a charge of solicitation to commit a felony, offered an unnamed man $5,000 to strangle Mrs. Young, a widow, Lehr said Mrs. Young spoke briefly with her son after putting up his bail Saturday and then left with him for her home in Bendertown, Pa.

AIM NEW BLOW AT LIVING COSTS

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—The government aimed a new blow at living costs today by boosting the price it will pay for some of its borrowed money. Private finance is expected to follow suit and demand a higher rate on its loans. Thus the administration's loss in this process of making credit more expensive is to discourage some of the borrowing that has been cited as one factor in inflation. Secretary of the Treasury Snyder gave the cue last night. He announced that the government shortly will pay more interest on its short-term securities. The first impact of Snyder's move will be felt September 15 and October 1. On those dates some $10,500,000,000 in government issues will fall due, or about one-twenty-fifth of the national debt. These will be replaced with issues paying a slightly higher rate. Treasury certificates which have carried 1 1/2 per cent, for example, will give place to certificates

'DIXIECRATS' MEETING TODAY

Houston, Texas, Aug. 10 (AP)—States' right Democrats met in Houston today to lay before Gov. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina their battle tactics for conquering electoral college votes in the solid south.

Gov. Thurmond, flying here from Columbia, is to make his formal acceptance as the states' righters candidate for president at a rally here tomorrow.

His running mate, Gov. Fielding L. Wright of Mississippi as vice presidential candidate, is expected to arrive early tomorrow by special train from Jackson.

Meanwhile, Texas Dixiecrats were licking wounds suffered yesterday at Austin, the state capital.

The state Democratic executive committee certified the names of Truman and Barkley as party nominees for president and vice president over protests of the Dixiecrats and rejected a Dixiecrat demand that it submit a referendum on the Thurmond-Truman issue to party voters in the August 28 primary.

paying 1 1/2 per cent. By the time these higher rates go into effect it is expected that the Federal Reserve board will have brought into play the new controls over bank and consumer credit which were authorized Saturday by the special session of Congress.

Mountain Climbers Die As Bolt Hits Icy Peak

San Francisco, Aug. 10 (AP)—Two California mountain climbers died and two others were burned seriously Wednesday when lightning from a sudden storm struck a cave in which they were huddled high on an 11,500-foot peak in the Canadian Rockies.

News of the tragedy came to light last night with a telephoned report to The Associated Press office here from a member of the hiking party who did not attempt the climb.

Dead were Rolf Pundt of Berkeley and Bob Becker of Los Gatos.

Recovering from second and third degree burns in a Cranbrook, B. C., hospital were Ann Strong, Berkeley, and Ian Mac Kinlay of San Francisco.

The report was made by John Thune, physical education director of the Oakland YMCA and one of a party of 18 climbing in the Bugaboo range near Spillamachean, B. C.

This was Thune's account: Pundt, Becker, Mac Kinlay and Miss Strong tackled Bugaboo spire Wednesday and reached a small cave near the top.

They took refuge there when falling snow made the rocks icy. As they huddled in the cave the lightning struck. All were knocked unconscious.

When Mac Kinlay came to, he told Thune, he saw Pundt twisting in convulsions. As the barely conscious Mac Kinlay watched, Pundt writhed over the edge of the cliff outside the cave and dropped 1,000 feet to his death.

Becker was partially paralyzed and semi-conscious. Mac Kinlay and Miss Strong, both badly burned, program. This will include high and fancy diving, clown diving, demonstration on child swim training, medley races and other attractions. Bleachers will be erected at the pool to accommodate the large crowd expected.

"Any local swimmer is eligible to compete against the visiting swimmers," Mr. Forney announced.

Following the program at the pool a buffet supper will be served at the club house by Schottie's. An orchestra will furnish music.

In addition to the visiting swimmers, announced several days ago by Mr. Forney, the following will compete:

Dorothy Templeton, Lancaster, 50-yard Middle Atlantic junior free style champion; Susan Kise, York, 50-100 yard senior breast stroke champion; June Ulmer, Lancaster, 50-yard back stroke junior champion; Anne Poole, Harrisburg, junior and senior free style champion; Joan Eyde, Shirley Beck, Barbara White, Doris Nestle and Marguerite Bitzer, all of Lancaster.

Joe Burnet, Lancaster, junior national 880-yard free style champion, and Bob Nick, PIAA 200-yard free style champion, will also compete.

Metropolitan Edison Gets Bonds Permit

Metropolitan Edison company, Reading, asked Securities Exchange corporation consent to issue and sell at competitive bidding $3,500,000 of first mortgage bonds due in 1973 and 40,000 shares of cumulative preferred stock, $100 par.

Competitive bidding will determine the interest and dividend rates, offering prices and underwriting terms. Proceeds of the sale, together with $1,500,000 to be contributed by General Public Utilities corporation, New York holding company parent, will be used for new construction, repayment of bank loans and, to the extent $1,500,000 as a cash capital contribution to Edison Light and Power company, a subsidiary of Metropolitan.

Edison Light will use the funds so contributed to reduce its indebtedness to Metropolitan, to increase its working capital and to meet construction costs.

Camden, N. J., Aug. 10 (AP)—More than 30 would-be husbands responded to Annetta Newman's advertisement for a spouse. Some already have been rejected by the 30-year-old divorcee who said she "preferred a widower with small children—I don't care how many." One prospect, 250-pound Esmond Sullivan of Rahway, N. J., lost out because "he's too fat," Mrs. Newman said yesterday.

TRUMAN SIGNS BILL; HITS GOP

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—President Truman signed the housing bill into law today with a blast at the Republican-controlled Congress for "deliberate neglect" of people most in need of adequate living quarters.

Mr. Truman said the measure falls "far short of the legislation which could and should have been enacted." He said in a statement that he was signing the bill because it would be "of some help" in meeting the critical housing shortage.

The President accused the House Republican leaders of blocking consideration of another bill which would have provided "decent housing" for millions of families.

Mr. Truman referred to the Taft-Elliender-Wagner measure which included public housing, slum clearance and rural housing provisions. This bill was shunted aside by the GOP leadership in the closing days of the extra session of the 80th congress.

In his message to Congress, Mr. Truman had referred to the T-E-W bill as the bill which the country needs. Housing and anti-inflation topped the list of proposals the President offered in calling the Congress back for the session which ended last Saturday.

The GOP bill lacks public housing and slum clearance provisions. It provides chiefly for greater financial backing in the form of insurance for private construction.

Dayton, O., Aug. 10 (AP)—Peace came to the strike-troubled plant of the Univis Lens Co. today after more than three months of negotiations, picket line violence, court battles and National Guard intervention. Striking CIO United Electrical Workers were back at their jobs this morning after last night's vote by Local 768 to accept a proposal ending the strike. The vote was unanimous.
